Re: Request for Early Termination

On August 9, 2004, Chris Wayne Hoelscher was sentenced in the District Court of the Northern Marianas Islands to a three year term of probation for Health Care Fraud, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1347. In addition to the mandatory and standard conditions, the Court also ordered the following: that Mr. Hoelscher serve a six month term of home confinement under the home detention component and abide by the requirements of the program to include payment for all or part of the costs of the program; pay restitution to Staywell Insurance in the amount of $1,328.68; pay a fine amount of $5,000; and pay a special assessment fee of $100.

Mr. Hoelscher has been in compliance with his conditions of probation. He served his six month term of home confinement between August 17, 2004 and February 15, 2005, and paid for the costs of the program. He satisfied the $100 special assessment fee, the restitution order of $1,328.68, and the fine order of $5,000 on August 10, 2004. Mr. Hoelscher has made monthly office reports as required, and a criminal records check revealed no new arrests since his placement on probation.

Mr. Hoelscher is a practicing chiropractor in the state of Illinois. His practice is licensed and overseen by the Illinois State Medical Board. Recently, the Illinois State Medical Board imposed a requirement that Mr. Hoelscher submit quarterly compliance reports of his federal probation status, otherwise, risk losing his license. The Illinois probation office indicated that it will provide status reports to the state board, but will require Court approval.

SPECIAL REPORT

Request for Early Termination

Mr. Hoelscher has served over two of the three year probation term, which is set to expire on August 8, 2007. In light of his compliance to conditions of probation, this Officer moves for early termination of probation in this case. Assistant U.S. Attorney Timothy E. Moran had no objection to this request.

RESPECTFULLY submitted this 21st day of September 2006.
